

Del Campo High School Faculty & Alumni invite you to a participate in

SACRAMENTO SUPPORTS LAURA LING & EUNA LEE

U.S. journalists sentenced to 12 years of labor reform in North Korea

THURSDAY • JULY 9, 2009

6:30 PM – 8:00 PM

CALIFORNIA STATE CAPITOL • WEST STEPS

10TH STREET BETWEEN L & N STREETS • SACRAMENTO, CA 95814

Del Campo High School faculty and alumni are organizing a gathering of friends, family and community in support of Laura Ling and Euna Lee, the U.S. journalists sentenced to 12 years of labor reform in North Korea.

Laura Ling is an area native and 1994 graduate of Del Campo High School. Lisa Ling, Laura's sister, a 1991 Del Campo graduate and special correspondent to CNN, The Oprah Winfrey Show and National Geographic Explorer, will be attending along with members of the Ling family.

State, city, county officials and organizations, as well as national and local media, have been invited to participate. A full list of speakers, supporters and participants will be available on Wednesday, July 8.

FOR MEDIA INQUIRIES, PLEASE CALL: 1-877-310-3330

ORGANIZED BY:

Brenna Hamilton, Del Campo Class of '91: brennahamilton@gmail.com

Elizabeth MacMillan, Del Campo Class of '91: elizabeth.macmillan@asm.ca.gov

Beth Diebels, Del Campo Class of '92: beth.diebels@gmail.com

Marcus Marquez, Del Campo Class of '92: marcusmarquez@aol.com

Cheryll (Dumpit) Marsh, Del Campo Class of '94: cdumpit@hotmail.com

Elsa Cheung, Ling Family Friend: elsacheung@gmail.com

Jim Jordan, Del Campo Faculty: jjordan@sanjuan.edu